

9. It is hence brought to your notice that, all the communications made by you, under the guise of president of the Federation is an act of ultra virus and is to be withdrawn immediately.
10. It is also brought to your notice that, you are maintaining a website having domain name as www.aikf.in, which is maintained by you. Our client further brings to your notice that, if such a website were to be the official website of the Federation, the same should be handed to the custody of the General secretary, failing which, the said website will be deemed as a website without the mandate of the Federation and will be liable for action in accordance to law.

WHEREFORE, you are now called upon by our client, to withdraw all communication made by you, under the guise of your capacity as the president of the Federation, within 3 days from the receipt of this Notice. You are further called upon to return all Letter Heads and other properties of the Federation, in favour of the General Secretary of the Federation within 3 days from the receipt of this Notice. You are further called upon to hand over the charge of the website www.aikf.in, in favour of the General Secretary of

